

How to use the Nagano Courtesy Passport for Parenting Families

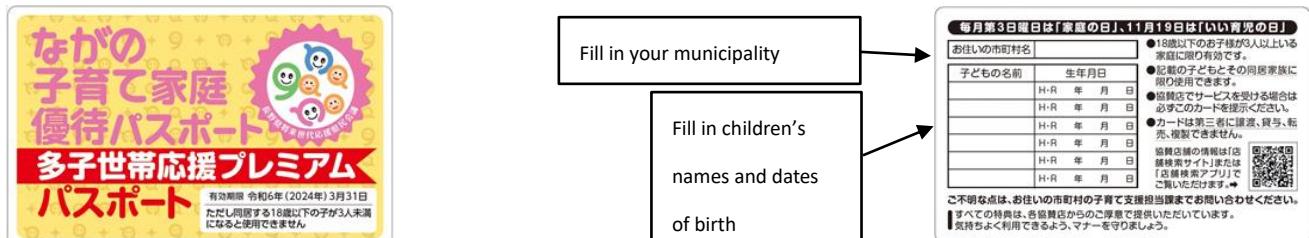

Nagano Courtesy Passport for Parenting Families

The card is for families residing in Nagano Prefecture with children ages 18 years or younger, or pregnant women (including household members) as of the end of the fiscal year.

Big Family Premium Passport

The card is for families residing in Nagano Prefecture with three or more children ages 18 years or younger (including household members) as of the end of the fiscal year.

Notes:

- Fill out your municipality, children's names, and the dates of birth on the back.
- The card is invalidated if children reach 19 years of age before the expiration date.
- You may not transfer, lend, or sell your card to others.
- Present your card when making an order or payment at a store or shop displaying the poster above.
- Special offers vary by business.
- The card may also be used at participating businesses outside of Nagano Prefecture. Please present your Nagano Courtesy Passport for Parenting Families at businesses displaying the national standard logo above.
- Carry your Big Family Premium Passport along with your Nagano Courtesy Passport for Parenting Families. (The Big Family Premium Passport may not be accepted at some stores.)
- If you have any questions, please contact us: shoushika@pref.nagano.lg.jp